My busy fancy flies, Vhen Salem's warlike sons went for h To deeds of high emprise. The land of beauty and of song.
Unrivaled Palestine!
Where Sharon's rose burst into bloom,
And honey-blent with wine!
What does not mankind owe to her. When like an amulet, She hung upon the Pagan world, A dismoud cased in jot.

The very laws that guide our feet
Through every blooming zone,
Were in her sacred courts preserved,
On blocks of solid stone.
Nor is the hon Judah deal—
His march is stately yet, And many a star of boauty beams

Her dark-eyed daughters still are fair, Her sons are stolwart still. Their arms stretch forth for every prize. Nerved with an iron will. Their names are written proud and high In music and in art, And Fame no wide arena beasts Where they don't bear a part.

Through forums and through Senate balls, Their silvery accents roll,
And with Isaiah's burning fire
Enchant the human soul:
And Judah seems to bear aloft
Aladin's wondrous lamp,
While Earth, responsive, yields her gems,
Where Judah's exited tramp.

Although they ream without a land— From Salem darkly hurled— Her princes rule with magic hand, The coffers of the world. They are a Power, the Gentiles feel In every threships are: In every throbbing core in strange influence of that tribe Which roams creation o'er.

Imperial race! thy splenders gitt The glimmering dawn of Time, When Earth lay blushing in the arms Of Eden's golden prime. And brighter yet the flames shall rise Where Salem's alters stand— Time's last great act shall charm the world, in Freedom's paimy land!

THE PLAINS.

A Graphic Pen-Pleture of a Skirmish With the Indians. The Philadelphia Press publishes a private letter from Brevet Lieut, Col. Carpenter, 10th United States Infantry, dated Fort Wallaco, Oct. 23, giving the following welldrawn picture of a lively skirmish with the

About 7 A. M. on the 18th, Capt. Graham rode forward with two men from the camp, with the intention of looking down the creek a little further before we started on the back track, but had hardly gone a thousand yards when about twenty five Indians suddenly dashed over the hill directly in his rear with the evident intention of cutting his party off. The move-ment was so sudden that they were almost upon Graham before he discovered them. He instantly struck spurs into his horse and dashed toward the creek, the Indiana firing a volley at short range upon the small party. One of the bullets passed through Graham's hat, another through his coat, and a third through his leggins, without wounding bins. One of the horses was shot through the shoulder, and fell. His rader succeeded in getting into the creek along with another soldier who had been thrown, and they commenced firing upon the Indians. Graham's girth burst as his horse sprang away at the tirst fire, but, as the suldie gave way, he seized the horse's muse and dragged himself forward on the borse. He then dashed the horse over the bank of the creek, about fifteen feet, into the bottom. He fell from the animal in this jump, but the borse, fortn-Amick and Orleman, to cover the retreat wards the hill, the savages rushed from the sweetheart had taken, she, by artful stories of Graham's men. A RICHMOND ROMANCE.

A Virginia Maiden in a Boy's Attire All for Love. Commission houses and their counting and consequently they are the last places where the world looks for the romantic But very recent developments in a Richmond establishment have very beautifully illustrated that line of Walter Scott's that "Love rules the camp, court, grove, and mart, and skeds its influence untrammeled as the Subscription Price Reduced Still sunshine, investing with its warmth and brightness the darkest and most uninviting places.

Two months or more ago, a vacant elerkship in the house referred to was applied for and filled by a youth apparent! about sixteen years of age. He applied in response to an advertisement of the Wanted, a youth, who can write good hand, and come well recommended." Out of sixty odd applicants our hero (or heroine) took the palm for the neatness, legibility, and regularity of his chirography; was sent for, presented himself, and was installed in the position of entry clerk. He displayed remarkable aptitude for business; was quick and accurate at figures ever ready to run an errand, or lend a hand at anything that was to be done. In manners he was polite; blushed when looked at or spoken to; wept when chided by his employers, or chaffed by his fel-low-clerks because of his peachy cheeks, feminine figure, and general girlishness of appearance. Time wore on. The busy season came, and brought with it a gen-tleman from beyond the Blue Ridge, who had occasional dealings with the house, Desiring to examine the stock, the entryclerk was called from his stool and in structed to show the gentleman over the floors. Their eyes met, those of th strange gentleman and the entry clerkthe gentleman stammered "Great God!" and staggered into a seat; the clerk blushed scarlet to his ear-tops, then burst into tears. Then came the denouement, The gentleman explained that he recognized in the clerk the lost daughter of citizen of his county; that she ran away in August last, and had since been mourned

It will guard with vigilance and firmness the rights of all the people, urging upon all, moderaion, forbearance and a steady adherence to and order, thereby enabling the people to elop the resources and advance all the material and other interests of our State and com mon country. Feeling that these are endangered by the revolutionary schemes of the Radial politicians, who now hold the legislative lower of the government, we shall shate nothng of our past opposition to their measures.

Schools and Education.

We will take especial pains to ascertain the true situation of all our school and educaional interests, so as to know our readers (all posted in regad to those important matters.

Our Manufacturing and Domestic Interests.

We shall constantly admonish the Souther people to be self-reliant, and shall do what we may be able to induce the establishment o manufactories in our midst for our home producte. To this end we will pay special attention to the cost and statistics of manufacturing, and exert ourselves to encourage the diversincation of Southern industries and the development of Southern resources.

Our Financial and Commercial Column.

Every department of business has an immediate interest in the markets of the country, and in its financial fluctuations and condition. The man who falls to keep himself properly adrised as to the rise and fall of the markets, as ontrolled by the taws of demand and supply and the relative condition of the currency, is exposed to constant loss, and must necessarily fall behind his more intelligent and enterprising neighbors. In order to make our paper valuable as well as interesting, we shall make this a segman scarces. AUTHENTIC DOCUMENT. Arkansas Heard From TESTIMONY OF MEDICAL MEN.

Stoney Point, White Co., Ark., May 25, 66 DR. JOHN BULL. -- D ar Sir: Last February was in Louisville purchasing drugs, and I got some of your Sarssparilla and Cedron got some of your Sarssparilla and Cedron Bitters.

My son-in-law, who was with me in the store, had been down with the rhenmatism for sone time, commenced saths bitters, and soon found his general health improved.

Dr. Gist, who has been in bad health, tried them, and he also improved.

Dr.Coffee, who has been in bad health for several years—srowaen and liver effected—he improved very much by the use of your bitters. In deed the Cedron Bitters has given you gree t popularity in this settlement. I think you could sell a great quantity of your medicines this fall—especially of your Cedron Bitters and Sarsaparilla. Ship me via Memphic care of Rickett & Neely.

It has not and find it wonderfully efficacious. It has not failed in a single instance to have the wished for effect. I am doing a pretty large country practice, and have daily use for some article of the kind. I am free to confess that I know of no remedy recommended by the ablest authors that is so certain and speedy in its effects, On the contrary they are uncertain in the extreme. My object in writing you is to find out upon what terms I can get it upon easy terms, I shall use a great deal of it. I am aware that the use of such articles is contrary to the teachings and practice of s contrary to the teachings and practice of a great majority of the name an line of M.
